

Charlcie Staten

June 2, 1924 - October 27, 2017

Charlcie Staten 93 of Delbarton, WV departed this life on October 27, 2017 at her home. She was born June 22, 1924 at Delbarton. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ki and Peggy Maynard Staten. She was also preceded in death by her brothers, Ireland, Lloyd, Pete, Oliver, Joe, Garland and Melvin, sisters, Louise Evans, Mary Ann Copley, Tennessee and Jane Staten.

Charlie leaves behind to cherish her memories her sister-in-law, Betty Staten and special nephew, Larry and his wife Debbie Staten all of Delbarton. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews whom she dearly loved.

Charlcie was a very colorful character and will long be remembered for her anecdotes and witty sayings. She brought smiles to many faces with her exaggerated expressions, dramatic entrances and clever unexpected replies. She was especially proud of her name and lived to tell the story of its origin to family, friends and strangers alike. She was certainly one of a kind and will be greatly missed.

While God granted Charlcie many happy, healthy years upon this earth, her death, like any death, should be taken as a reminder of the immortality that none of us can escape. For death is more certain than life, and does not discriminate. Death knows us not by young nor old, man nor woman, or rich nor poor, but instead by the hour in which it calls. Thankfully, however it, too, must bow before our Lord and give up its authority to the Everlasting Life He has promised to those who have accepted Him as their Savior. "For God so love the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16) May we all prepare to meet our Lord while living, so that when our time has come, our souls may say, "O death, where is thy sting, O grave where is thy victory?" (1 Corinthians 15:55-56)

Funeral services will be held at the Chafin Funeral Home on Tuesday morning Oct. 31, 2017 at 11:00am with Rev. Sherman Jones officiating. Burial will follow in the Mountain View Memory Gardens at Maher, WV. Visitation will be at the funeral home chapel on Monday evening from 6-9pm. “ I wish I'd known my great-aunt Charlcie. My mother, daughter of her brother Oliver, told me many stories about Charlcie. She sounded like she was something else.

“ I have so many great memories of Charlcie when I was growing up, especially the summer I spent with my grandma, her sister, Louise Evans at my grandma's house by the side of the road there in Delbarton. Charlcie would always pop in to visit and never failed to liven things up. She was always on the go that's for sure. Unfortunately, the last time I was able to visit with her was shortly after I had my oldest daughter and she is 22 now. It makes me sad that my girls didn't get to enjoy time with her since we live so far away. I know she'll be missed by all those who loved her, but I hope she's up there enjoying time with my dad, my aunt Peggy, grandma Louise and the rest of our family.
