

Steven Dwayne Booth

February 24, 1969 - April 6, 2020

Steven Dwayne Booth, 51, of Lenore, WV passed away April 6, 2020 while a patient at the UK Medical Center in Lexington, KY. He was born February 24, 1969 at Logan, WV. He was the son of, Rev. Curtis and Patricia Smallridge Booth of Gahanna, OH.

Steven was a truck driver by trade. His greatest testimony was that he was a Christian and no matter what happened with his health, "he was a winner either way".

He was preceded in death by his son, Zachary Booth, brothers, Curtis Lee, Michael Ray and Ronald Booth.

In addition to his parents, Steven is survived by his son, Alton and wife Leigh Ann Booth of Danville, WV, brothers, Ricky and wife Sue Booth and David Booth both of Lenore, WV, sister, Larita Jude and husband James of Circleville, OH and the apple of his eye, his granddaughter, Lillian Booth.

Due to the regulations for Covid-19, the family will host a private service on Thursday and in honoring the wishes of the family, Cremation will take place after the service. Chafin Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

“ I'll forever hold the time Steve J.J.and I drove J.J.s speed boat down to Huntington w.v. and drove it all the way up the Ohio to New Martinsville w.v. on a day it was every bit of 98 degrees without a cloud in the sky by the time we made it up to New Martinsville we all three were sunburnt so bad we couldn't hardly move the only places on us that was'nt was covered by our shorts and sunglasses. We all 3 had the craziest taned faces that summer when we took our sunglasses off.. Rest Easy Big Brother! To Steve's family, I hope reading this gives you all some type of comfort he truly was a great man with a kind heart and I promise he never missed a chance to give me hard time but it was all in good fun. The news of his passing is shocking to me I offend wondered how he was doing I hadn't seen him in 3 or 4 years.

“ Brother Steve, I'm just not sure what to think or say. This ones got my head hurting. When I met you the first time, I remember thinking awe he's a cutie. Something you should not be thinking about Pastor's son lol, but you were so sweet kind and friendly. You even made fun of me being a Crimson Roll Tide fan and promised to not hold it against me but was glad I was a down home southern girl. These past years I can honestly say you stepped up when we needed you and with no complaints. I'm grateful that you'll be taken care of by your brother's welcoming arms. I pray for peace, comfort and healing for your precious Mom and Dad and family. May God give them the strength and courage to move forward. Hugs.

“ For God so Love the world he gave his only begotten son .That who so ever Believe in him has everlasting life. I Believe in Jesus Christ. I believe we all will see each other again. I have known Pastor Curtis and Mrs Booth since I was a kid and my dad grew up with pastor Curtis. I know God is with your son and with you. I'm so sorry to hear about your son .My Prayers to God to have his Angel's to support and surround you with his love. May God and the presence of Jesus Christ come to you to comfort you and your family.Amen Tammy
