Oh sis Patty & family, I just now learned of my great friend. I hadn't heard anything until now! I am so hurt to learn this! He was my great friend all along the way! I love and appreciate you and him being a huge part of the video we made when he played the part of Jesus in it! He was so very special to me and I know to everyone else! But as you know and believe, this is not goodbye, but goodnight until the morning! We have all the hope of the universe of being with him again and to never again be separated! We love you and the family so very much!
