“ I truly loved Bro. Alva, He was a good man. He did all he could for the church, could out sell any thing the church wanted to sell to help the church. He always had a smile for others and liked to tease my Grand-kids and great-grand-kids. Rest in peace Alva, in the arms of our loving father. and my heart and prayers go out to Joann and family.

“ I have so many good memories of my brother fishing trips hunting together . He was my buddy my friend. Looks like my best memory will be when I visited him last weekend we talk about been saved and where we are going. Alva was a man if you new him he would be your friend for ever. Alva worked hard to support his church which he loved dearly. I will see you again in heaven my brother. Love you brother Alva.
