“ My Aunt Amelie was Truly One Of Kind .. She loved life . When I think of her I remember her Laugh!! She was surely a good woman!! She would go Toe to Toe with anyone on her family !! I know she was the 1 if you wanted to know anything about wild greens or anything like that she would be the one to ask..I will miss her very much .. She would say now Margie Jean and then go on to tell me whatever it was ..she was a hard worker good sister,wife , mother, and grandmother and Friend ..But I know she fought a hard fight.. Now she has no more pain or sorrow.. I will miss you aunt aim. Spring is here and I will watch for the signs!! Love forever & miss you and your laugh .. Love Margie Jean Lol you know what I mean

“ Amelia is my Aunt. She may be gone, but will live forever in our hearts.

She was a very loving and wonderful person on the inside and out! I'm very proud to call her my AUNT !!!!

I know she was greeted in HEAVEN by so many LOVED ONES ! GOD truly gained a beautiful and loving woman!

I'm going to miss you so much, but, I know we're going to meet again, but till we do, you'll forever be in my heart !! I Love You Aunt Amelia

“ MY MOTHER-IN-LAW WENT HOME TO OUR MIGHTY GOD. MOM ME AND YOUR SON DANIEL LOVE YOU SO MUCH. YOU WAS THERE FOR ME NO MATTER HOW BIG OR SMALL IT WAS. I REMEBER ABOUT A YEAR OR SO AGO WHEN YOU LET ME AND DANIEL STAY WITH YOU. I WOULD HAVE TO GET UP EARLY TO CATCH YOU OUT ON THE FRONT PORCH WITH VILOET DRINKING COFFEE BEFORE I COULD TOUCH THE HOUSE. NO MATTER HOW SICK YOU WAS MOM YOU JUST HAD TO DO THINGS YOURSELF. I PRAY I CAN BE HALF AS STRONG AS YOU ARE. WE LOVE YOU AND WILL KEEP YOU IN OUR HEARTS EVERY DAY.

“ Amelie was my aunt. I remember visiting in my grannies house with everyone gathered around the kitchen table for granny Ester's dinner. Amelie and everyone wating for the cornbread to come out of the oven, we always fought over the edge of the cornbread. Aunt Amelie had the greatest laugh and was one of the strongest, toughest, most lovable woman ever. She had faced many struggles, but she is now in the arms of our heavenly Father and rejoicing with her loved ones and angles in heaven. No more pain or sorrows. I love and miss you.

“ My mommy is the greatest woman i have ever known. She would all ways keep me and daniel in line. And if we didnt the switch came out. I remember one time me and daniel had got into it and mommy said kiss and make up i told her no way was i going to kiss my brother, Daniel kissed my arm and mommy wore me out because i would not kiss him. Needless to say she never asked for us to kiss and make up again. She would just whoop us. But i loved her and i know she loved me. And the values she has taught me i pray that i can teach my son.

“ Amelia is my Aunt...I have so many memories of her, I can't just tell one, cause I have so many!

I LOVED that SMILE & LAUGH of hers, you couldn't help but, but get tickled when she'd start laughing.

But, let me tell ya, when she'd get mad, everyone knew it!!! She was a spit fire!

I can still see her sitting in Granny's kitchen with a cup of coffee and talking up a storm.

Everyone gathered up in Granny's kitchen of the evening, and talked.

I right today, can hear Amelia say my name...she'd call me by my whole name name or nickname..it was either Brenda Faye or Pincherbug, but usually everyone else called me Bren or as Granny would say "Brend" ...

She is such a SPECIAL WOMAN...she is truly going to be missed , but, she may be gone from our sight, but, will live forever in our hearts❤️❤️

HEAVEN truly gained a BEAUTIFUL & WONDERFUL ANGEL!!!

Like the song Vince Gill sings: Go Rest High On That Mountain, cause your work here on Earth is done, Go to HEAVEN A SHOUTIN !!!

and that I know she did, and she was greeted with so many loving arms to embrace her!!

I LOVE YOU SO MUCH AMELIA...I'LL SEE YOU AGAIN ONE DAY!! Love you, Your Niece Brenda Faye 💕💕
