“ I have lived beside Amos since I was born, 20 years ago. He was like family to me. I can remember climbing over the fence to go see him. He would always give me a little orange circus peanut. This past summer was the first summer I spent without my poppa since he passed. Poppa and Amos always competed with their gardens, it was always so funny. It was a friendly competition but so funny to watch. Amos was over here with me the whole summer helping me grow a garden in memory of my Poppa. It meant so much to me. Amos is greatly missed... He was a wonderful man and I loved him dearly.

“ My Grandfather

I am so fortunate that I met this awesome funny man earlier this month. I am so happy I found him through Ancestry.com.

I am greiving for his beloved ones' loss.

I miss him, too.
