

Anise Mae Marcum Brewer

May 19, 1934 - March 20, 2024

Anise Mae Marcum Brewer, 89, entered into her eternal home on Wednesday, March 20, 2024. She was born on May 19, 1934 to the late Ance and Beulah Maddox Marcum in White Post, Kentucky. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by her loving husband Eugene Jack Brewer and infant daughter Connie Jean Brewer.

Anise spent her life as a homemaker. She loved to cook and especially spend time with her family. She was a faithful member of the Little Dove United Baptist Church for many years.

Anise is survived by her daughters Dreama (Jim) Kinser, Phyllis (Claude Jr) Adkins, and Bonnie (Bill) Brewer, her grandchildren Justin (Erin) Walters, Brandi (Brandon) Thacker, Megan (Dwayne) Justice, Dena (Jessie) Branham, Sylvia Baisden, and Andy Brewer, her twelve great grandchildren, and her four great great grandchildren.

In honoring Anise's memory, a graveside service will be held on Friday, March 22, 2024 at 12:00pm at the Waldron Cemetery in Naugatuck, West Virginia. Elders Jimmy Maynard and Chris Ooten will be officiating. Chafin Funeral Home is proudly serving the Brewer family.

“ when i was a young girl, Anise would take me to her home in W.VA. and I would spend the weak end. she would make hot dogs and big bottles of pop. I love it, we didn't get big bottlers of pop at home, because there was so many of us. I love my sister and will miss her verry much. Wish someone in the family had let me know, We all will miss you. Love you Anise.

“ *I will always have fond memories of staying Aunt Anise and Uncle Jack during my childhood. Plus I'll always remember being held hostage by their turkey in the hen house. I was going out to get eggs and their turkey cornered me in the hen house thinking I had food. Looking back on that it gives me a laugh but not when your 10 years old. LOL!
I just found out today of Aunt Anises passing. I wish our family was closer but somehow we grew apart and you can't get back the time lost.*
