“ So,as you know of course, Daddy and Janet are married. She makes him very happy and it feels so good to hear him laughing again. Heck, he's even doing his famous poetry. I think you would be pleased. Tonight, I drove up the road and noticed, for the first time in a few years, Christmas lights are decorated on the side on the hill still waiting to see the big one on the side, I will be able to see it from my house. Just thought I would drop you a note too tell you I love you and miss you so much. And thanks for the extra light things you send my, Like the rainbows and the butterflies. There was a small rainbow at the lake on Friday. I miss you so much. Please keep watching over me. I need you guiding hand lately. And really just your smile.

Mommy it has been 2 months today and I still miss you. But we are doing ok well the best we know how to. We are at peace because we know that you are with your Jesus. I know you are walking the streets of gold in your new body where you know everyone and I know you are having your talks with Granny that you always talked about. I love you and I promise I will see you on the other side. I love you and will be in my heart forever.
