“ I first met Antonio in 7th grade, I remember I had gotten picked on a lot but he was always kind to me, years later I was working at the game room at the south side mall and I reconnected with him, he came by quite a bit and would hang out and just talk and play games. He introduced me to a cartoon called “Happy Tree Friends” Such a great guy, after I left that job I didn’t see him as much, But every time I ran into him we would talk and reminisce about this and that. The last time I ran into him was 2015 at the south side mall. Though I wasn’t around him that much due to moving away I still will always consider him a good friend, I’m still floored by learning of his untimely passing, way too young. Rest easy my friend. I will keep the family in my prayers. Shawn
