“ Hi my name is Anna Woodson I am JJ Messers sister in law. When I heard what happened I found it in my heart to share my testimony in hopes that one day it may help you. Me and my husband tried for seven years to create a baby and nothing. On March 27th 2007 I found out I was pregnant and my heart was overfilled with joy. On November 28th 2007 I gave birth to a 9lb 5oz perfect baby girl who was stillborn. I never saw her open her eyes, I never heard her cry and she never called me mommy and I have never recovered from that day. The pain that was in my heart took over me and all I could do to keep my sanity was try to have another baby I even screamed at god and told him he owed me a child. Then in 2009 I had a healthy baby girl and another and then two boys after that and every time I have held a child in my arms I feel god's love for me and I now know that he was with me on that day and everyone since then. I am here to tell you that god loves you and with one arm god is holding your baby and with the other he is holding you. I am truly sorry that this has happened to you and there are no words to say that will make it better but I hope you can find comfort in the little memories that you have had with your baby. Love always

~Anna
