“ You were my life line at GC - always there with a smile and words to keep me going.
Praying for your family & friends but knowing the great memories we all hold hopefully will bring a little comfort to us all.
Rest easy my friend and know you will be missed by many but forgotten by none

“ Carl (bub) I love you . I miss you. This is so unbelievable. You were so strong with a smile that could bring light and laughter to any room. You were always one of my favorite cousins and you knew this for sure. I will miss everything about you. Why just why did you leave m e so soon. I love you! It's never goodbye It's always see you later. Until we meet again rest easy. May brother 4 month ago now you. How? May your babies find comfort and peace in their memories of you. I love you.

Sorry to hear about Carl's passing. I knew this family when growing up. Especially his grandparents Henry and Mildred, and Uncle Junior and Aunt Ersie Marie. Junior if you read this would you contact me at mocogop58@yahoo.com This is Bobby Taylor who lived in the same apartment as you did in East Williamson, years ago.
