Christina White, 47 of Delbarton, WV passed away January 27, 2022 while a patient at the Cabell-Huntington Hospital. She was born August 5, 1974 in Cabell County, WV. She was the daughter of Sidney Glen and Lela Stephenson of Wayne, WV. She worked for several years with the Mingo County Library system and was the Matewan Librarian for a short time before her illness.

Those left behind to cherish her memory include her parents, Sidney Glen and Lela Stephenson, her husband of 23 years, James White Jr., son, James Matthew White, daughters, Michaela White, Margaret White and Katherine White, Courtney Wheeler and Dawn Hatfield, brother, Sidney (Joanie) Stephenson, sister, Julia (John) Pellegrini, nieces and nephews, Jaxon Foster, Gianna Pellegrini, Sarah (Adam) Foster and Taylor Stephenson. Her memory will forever have a special place in the hearts of her best friends, Pam Warden, Cindy Ritter and Virginia Spaulding.

“ *I cannot say, I will not say.
That she is dead. She's just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
She's wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you - oh, you -who the wildest yearn
For the old time step - and the glad return
Think of her as living on, as dear
In the Love of there as the Love of here
When the little green frog or the spider's web,
Were as dear to her as the Ocean's ebb.
Think of her still as the same I say. She is not dead!
She is just away.*

“ I'll always remember the good times of setting out by the fires or just setting on her deck just talking. The good times we had at the midget league games, our trips for library meetings or just driving around seeing how bad the water had gotten up when it would flood. That hill will never be the same. I lost a true friend, neighbor and one I loved like she was my own. Life is so hard sometimes. I'll see you again Christina. In the meantime I'll try to do my best in building a fire, if we have any more. □□
