“ Oh my how to begin I can't believe your gone. You were so very special to me Chris, it breaks my heart to think you're not here anymore. I'm so glad we kept in touch those last 10 years since I've been away from home. Logan thought you were the coolest person on earth. You had your "bub" and you was his "bub".I know you're in heaven with Snooks but you are so very missed here on earth. I'll love you always.

“ Our eyes are heavy our hearts are empty and our thoughts are filled with you. Our memories are all that's left, and these times we'll dwell, some will feel like they can't get through. We'll ponder through the why's and the how's, just to realize your in a better place now. Only time can heal these wounds of sorrow, and offer us comfort that we'll see you in a better tomorrow. Your laughter missed, your kind words lost, your adoring smile gone all the while. Your eyes so bright, your heart so full, you yourself so loving and caring, all this and more is completely overbearing. You will be missed and forever loved, Fly high Chris your now an angel above. love always, your friend Stephane Dotson.

“ I was one of Chris's teachers when he was young. He was fun-loving and kind, not easily upset and always brought a smile to my face. I feel sure that he brought those qualities to his adult life and brought much joy to his loved ones. I will remember Chris with fondness and send prayers to his friends and family.
Sincerely,

“Chris was the most loving and passionate man I have ever known. One night we wrote down 3 things we loved about each other. I remember mine...#1 I loved the way he loved his baby girl. You could see it in his eyes when he talked about about her. #2 I love the way he showed that same passion when talking about addiction and wanting to help others. And most of all #3...I loved the way he loved me. It was an honor to be part of his life and I will never forget how special he always made me feel.
