“ I have been blessed to have known Columbus Evans and his wife Brenda for many, many years they were such good friends more like family to me. He always had a smile on his face for all that he came across and a kind word to all, he always made sure he spoke to me and Danny anytime he saw us, we will miss him very much and miss seeing him in Lenore. R.I.P. My dear friend, you have run your race very well.
