“ My name is Jeffrey Edwards. I haven't attended the Varney Church of God since before my teen years. My grandmother Nellie Mae Tiller was a member at that time, and would take me along with her to church with her buddy Jean Mahon. Although at such an early age I wasn't too acquainted with Sis. Starr, I did know her when I seen her. I remember the days when I was a child that Sis Starr would get up and shout the victory. I can remember the days when Sis. Starr, Rita Cline, Bobbi Perkins, Melissa Edwards, and even Sis Bell would get up front and shout the victory. I know if anyone is on the other side of Jordan shouting the victory, it is Sis .Starr. Kudo's to you Sis. Starr for being not only a great christian, but also a great example of Christianity for the community of Pigeon Creek. WV.

“ My fondest memory of Connie was her inspiration when my daughter was born, I was undecided about a name and Connie said she looks like a Jessica Lyn to me. So that is where my daughter got her name. Loved Connie dearly, shared many great church services with her. Looking forward to meeting her again in Heaven along with many other loved ones.

Connie was like my second Mother throughout my Junior high and High School years. I spent a many days and nights with this Family and went many trips to Sunday school, Church, and Tennessee with them. I must say I am beyond blessed to be able to call this family my second family. May God Bless you and Comfort you during this sad time and the days ahead. God Bless!
