“ My sister Kathy shared a room with Darlene for the past 10 years. Kathy passed away last January. Darlene watched out for Kathy for the last five years because Kathy had lost the ability to walk. We never left Darlene out, when Kathy got something, Darlene got something. From pizza, burgers, etc. the only difference was Darlene drank Dr, Pepper and Kathy was a Pepsi and coffee drinker. Since both of their birthdays were in January we had one big party for both of them. I'm sure everyone knew that Darlene was a big Elvis fan. My sister Kathy was mentally handicapped and had a limited vocabulary. She could say No. After moving in with Darlene and two weeks of non stop Elvis music and movies Kathy began to say NO when she heard Elvis!!! Darlene wasn't perfect but when I visited her on the Monday before Christmas she accepted Christ as her Savior. I know she is at peace with Jesus.
