

Deborah Fitch

January 21, 1948 - January 13, 2026

Deborah Marcum Howard Fitch, 78, of Lenore, West Virginia, passed away on January 13, 2026, at Trinity Nursing Home in Logan, West Virginia. She was born on January 21, 1948, to the late Susan Ooten Marcum and William Thomas Marcum.

In addition to her parents, Deborah was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Fitch; her son, David Allen Marcum; and two beloved grandsons. Deb was a creative and hardworking woman who devoted much of her life to her family. She was a homemaker and, alongside her husband Don, owned and operated Lenore Auto Parts. Of all her roles, her favorite was driving truck cross-country, a job that reflected her independent spirit and love for the open road.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughters, Kimberly White of Statesville, North Carolina, and Marcella Kremers (James) of Columbus, Ohio; her sons, Donald Fitch of Columbus, Ohio, and Gregory Fitch (Leslie) of Columbus, Ohio; her first cousin, Dianne Hageman, who faithfully cared for her; along with numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Services honoring Deb's life will be held on Friday, January 16, 2026, at Little Dove United Baptist Church in Belo, West Virginia. Visitation will be from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m., with funeral services beginning at 1:00 p.m., officiated by Elder Chris Ooten. Burial will follow at the Ooten Cemetery, located at Hensley Big Branch in Lenore, West Virginia.

Chafin Funeral Home is honored to serve the Fitch family.

“ I hate to hear this. Her and Don were close neighbors and i loved going over to see them. She would make me cookies and Don would take me out to the shop and let me “work” and always gave me 2 dollars. They were great people. Prayers to her family.
