“ My Mommy #2. I have prayed for this day to never come. I can't express with words how much I will miss you and how truly heart broken I am right now! I have known you my whole life and really looked at you as my second mom. I will always have my many precious memories of my childhood with you and one day I hope to let your grandbabies hear every story, whether it be about the new "doorway" I almost made into your livingroom or about all the slumber parties at your house. I will never forget what a good woman, mother and grandmother you were... until we meet again! I love you.
