“ I am in shock to discover Dudley's passing a year later from an old friend from Roanoke, Greg Mullins. You were a devout man to your grandparents, parents and friends. A good man, bigger than life itself. No one will ever call me Elizabeth as you did. Rest is peace dear sir....

“ How sad to hear of Dudley's passing. I wasn't expecting this so soon. We first met in 1st Grade (yep, that would have been about 1961 - gulp, long ago) and we remained friends throughout the years. He was kind, gentle, funny and just a down right good guy. He was always a gentleman in my presence, even early on during our school years. What a great guy and good friend... I loved him and will miss him a lot.

To you, Dudley...
