“ My Dearest Grandmother,

You are know with grandpa and Rickey praising Gods word.

I remember as a child we couldn't wait for school to be over because" guess what" we knew we were going to spend the summer with you and grandpa and all of are uncles who were just like brothers to us.

The laughter, playing guns in the house and the best part was those good old beans and biscuit you made are late night chats about God.

*Forever in my heart,
