“ If I were to try to share the memories of being with Tommy, it would be far too long to post, so it is the laughter and long evening talks I will remember. My dear cousin, Tommy, was such a bright spot in our families' lives. He was dearly loved and appreciated by all of us. Time and circumstance sometimes get between us, but nothing changes the love that "Family" has for one another and not even death can take them out of our hearts. So just sleep and rest, Tommy. It will not be long till this vapor of a life has past and we will join you on Heaven's bright shores.
