“ My granny meant more to me than most people and family will ever know, she was always the sweetest and most truthful Christian woman I had ever met, I never fully understood what made her so strong willed and trusted God for every need she had until I myself accepted Christ as my savior, God changed my heart to want to be just as kind and humble ,she was the perfect example of the love of Jesus, which made it all the more special that I got to tell everyone that she was my granny, She never treated any of us grandchildren any different, unless you mentioned her great grandson Dylan ,she would just say he's my special one ,with a wink of the eye and a smile that could light up a room. I thank God for the last two years that I had the privilege of helping take care of her, the stories we shared and the prayers we prayed, the songs we sang, all make me strive to seek Gods will for my life that I may please and satisfy Him all the more, after I die and meet and thank my Savior, I want to run with my granny down the streets of gold,hand in hand skipping up gold dust,that is what I always told her when we would sing "Walk Up The Streets Of Gold" I miss you granny, I'll see you there, Tonya Daniels

“ *Proverbs 17:6 grandchildren are a crown to the aged, And parents are the pride of their children.
This Grandmother finds Reward and Honor in being surrounded by her Grandchildren. Her life has mattered, it continues on through succeeding generations. She has not only raised up Godly sons and daughters, but has raised them to raise up the same kind of children. Nothing so adorns children, and brightens their lives, like Godly Fathers and Mothers.
I am so truly blessed to be your granddaughter, Tonya Daniels*

This is sad to read of her death. There are so many memories of our growing up on Pigeon Creek. These are the ones that will always be cherished by all. My mother Myrtle Keatley was a member of the Varney Church of God and shouted with Sister Rife many times. Bless both of these dear ladies.

My Aunt Ethel was on of God's true prayer warriors. I have some wonderful memories of her that I will treasure always. My heart hurts to know she's gone, but rejoices to know she has finished her course. She won the race and is now resting with Jesus.
