“ Happy Birthday Bub!! I love you and miss you so much. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. You would be 51 today and that's hard enough to believe, but that you aren't here for the second birthday in a row feels impossible at times to believe and accept. I pray you're at peace, happy and that we all get a chance to see you again one day my big brother!! I love you always and will do my best to make sure your memory lives on through our children. You will never be forgotten as long as we live.

“ Bubby , I love and miss you so much. If I only hear you want in my door and say (Hey Miss V. How is my mom doing today). We would sit and drink coffee and talk about the boys. Bub you were a great man. You worked all your life to make sure that your boys had whatever they wanted. Zach and Alex miss you so much. They are having a rough time dealing with your death. I am too and sure your brothers and sisters and your dad are too. You will never be forgotten. I love you.

Mary, he was a wonderful person. Entirely too cute for his own good and such a good heart. He will always be my amazing big brother and he will be loved and missed as long as my heart beats and I walk this earth. I wish so badly he were still here. He's loved and missed far more by all of us then I'm sure he ever dreamed he would be.
