“ I didn't get to meet little Grayson but every update and every little Picture his Grandma and momma sent sure made my day..... I don't understand why he isn't with his mommy and daddy but I do know That Grayson had/has the best parents a baby could ask for and their love is unconditional.... The time that Noelle&Adam had with Grayson was special You could see the joy and love in their faces and you could tell they cherished every moment they got with Little Grayson! Even tho Our time with Grayson Was cut short we still loved the little guy I seen him grow and from the min he was born I knew he was just so special! Grayson short time here I learned how strong and might someone so little could be....Noelle&Adam I love you guys so much and I'm so sorry Your always in my thoughts and always in my prayers..... I love you Grayson!

My prayers for all of you, especially Adam and Noelle. I prayed for a miracle, but keeping him here was not in God's plans. I recall that God said his ways are not our ways and his thoughts are not our thoughts. God sees ahead in time as only he can and I trust that he had greater plans for this little guy. I know your hearts are heavy laden, my prayers are that God will give you peace as only he can.
