

Harold Jennings Maynard

May 3, 1942 - September 29, 2021

On September 29th, 2021, Harold Jennings “Zero” Maynard went to Heaven. Born May 3rd, 1942, he was a faithful Christian that loved the Lord and dedicated his entire life to serving Him and His word. Harold was a boy scout leader for many years. He was a hardworking UMWA coal miner for over 20 years. He was co-owner of Farley Slaughter House in Delbarton, who he helped run with his sister Bertha. Harold was a member of Elk Creek Freewill Baptist Church and loved being with his church family. He was an avid gardener and loved baking, especially his famous peanut butter fudge. He was loved by many people in his community and was always helping anyone he could. Harold leaves behind a great legacy. His impact of love and kindness will be carried on through his family, friends and all that knew him. Harold was the son of the late George Burgess and Edna Ooten Maynard. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his brothers, Kaile, Daniel, John B., Carvis and Matt Maynard; sisters, Dellene Kinder, Lucille Hilton and Lottie York, Bertha Mae Farley.

Those left behind to cherish Harold’s memory are his wife, Shirley Maynard, his sisters Linda Sue Policastro and Juanita Preece of Tennessee and Myrtle Kurowski of Cincinatti, OH. His children, Veronica (Lester Sr.) Hignite of Lenore, WV, Douglas “Harold” (Janie) Maynard of Williamson, WV, Patricia (Hubert) Clark of Taylorville, WV, Darlene Altizer of Delbarton, WV, Edward (Kathryn) Maynard of Charlotte, NC, Noah Paxton (Jennifer) Maynard of Winston Salem, NC, Prescott Maynard of Delbarton, WV, William (Adela)

Maynard of Prestonsburg, Kentucky and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren. In honoring zero's wishes, cremation will take place and a memorial service will be announced at a later date. Chafin Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
