“ I first met the McCoy's in the late 80's when my mother and us kids moved to Tomsbranch. At that time I hadn't been in W.V. very long as I had to the age of 12 been in Northwest Ohio. I must say the sense of family with Budge and Faye was something I'd never seen before...I mean these folks took me in like I was their own. I went to stay the night and was there for way over a year. They bought me Christmas gifts just like I belonged there. I remember Andy being kinda quiet..of course he would be to me cause I was way younger than he. But he was always good to me. I'd aggravate him by saying that he looked like Prince...I don't think he was a big Prince fan. But I digress....One could look the world over and never find better folks. That goes for his parents...Aunts and Uncles...just good people and I'll always appreciate them....James E. Morris

“ I met Andy and Margaret about 20 yrs ago thru our daughters when I first moved to the area. I got to know him thru ballgames and work. I will always cherish the friendship and memories I have of Andy. He was a great all-around family man, a dedicated provider and a great driver to work with. He was a humble man who would do anything he could to help you. He set the example we all should live by. I will greatly miss Andy but I know I will see him again one day.

“ So many things I would like to say about Andy. First off, he always tried to serve the lord. He loved his family, and loved to drag race. He was one of the best truck drivers around. It was a pleasure to work along side of him for eleven years. I will greatly miss him.
