“ *james was such a good man He always talked about his love of the Lord. he would visit people and talk to them about church and being saved.I guarantee you if you were around him any time he would invite you to come to church or mention the Lord to you. He was a happy man never met a stranger. Our church family we definitely miss james..But i know he is resting from his labor and won't be in pain any more.we all know we will see him again if we are saved and serve the Lord praying much for all of his family and friends we love you all much.
