“ May the memory of Jennifer be a blessing to our family and friends who shared many wonderful times and experiences with her! As her Aunt I truly feel blessed to have had the opportunity to share numerous conversations with her during these last few months. Rest in Peace in the hands of God, Jennifer! Much love to everyone during this very difficult time. Aunt Ann

“ Oh my heart is completely broken. I just got off work and saw this. I just can't believe this. Jennifer was one of my very best friends in school. She and I would take the trade center course, so we rode the bus to Delbarton from Tug Valley everyday, mainly to waste time as bad as that sounds, but she was absolutely one of the best people I have ever had the pleasure to know. After school, we went our separate ways, but we sometimes would see each other if she was in for the holidays or a special occasion, and her eyes would just light up, as would mine, and she had that beautiful smile on her face everytime I seen her. We would talk back and forth on fb sometimes just to keep in touch. Oh how I loved her. She was one of a kind. Im praying for her husband and children and her father and everyone. Rest in sweet peace my beautiful friend
