Thereafter, she was employed in the bakery department at the Piggly Wiggly grocery store in S. Williamson, KY where she learned to bake and decorate cakes. After leaving Piggly Wiggly, she then went to work for a short period of time also in the bakery department at Kroger grocery store in S. Williamson. During what time she was employed and after employment, Jerry began baking and selling cakes from her home, as well as catering. She truly enjoyed decorating cakes and the happiness that it brought to others. She was known for her specialty of wedding cakes and her children as well as other family and close friends were blessed to have her bake for them. Jerry also mastered the art of sewing and was a seamstress for many people. She enjoyed spending time with friends and family and her precious grandchildren. She always loved flowers and enjoyed receiving them as well as planting them. In later years she loved bird watching from her living room window where she could see the numerous birds eating from the feeders in her front yard amongst the many flowers she had planted. She always looked forward to the blooming of the Easter lilies as well as her beautiful roses. Jerry had many hobbies throughout her lifetime. Her favorite was cat fishing on Douglas Lake. She found great joy in entertaining and cooking for her friends and family, which she did numerous times while at her home in Dandridge where she and her husband Gene spent their summer s for several years. She was a marvelous cook and host that always made you feel welcome.

Jerry was of the Pentecostal Faith and attended the Church of God at Varney, WV where she raised her children and she enjoyed old fashioned Christian singing. In the early years of her attending the church, Jerry taught Sunday school and loved doing the Christmas plays as well as sewing some of the costumes. She loved to read and had many books, but her Bible was the one she treasured most of all, reading and putting God's word in her heart.

Jerry will be greatly missed all who knew and loved her. She had a special place in her heart for her family.

“ Today, we say goodbye to a truly remarkable woman — a loving mother-in-law, a guiding light, and a source of warmth and wisdom. Her strength, and quiet grace touched the lives of everyone who had the privilege to know her. She was more than family — she was a friend, a mentor, and a steady presence whose memory will forever remain in our hearts.

To the family, I offer my deepest condolences. May you find comfort in the love she gave, the memories you shared, and the legacy she leaves behind. Her spirit will continue to live on through each of you.

“ I met her at her daughter Suzannah's wedding. She did the cake, it was a waterfall one. Everything was beautiful. I later became friends and sister in Christ Jesus our Lord. She was so kind to my sons Chuck and Michael. They have some great memories spent at her home. She made Mike a open bible birthday cake one year. I still have a picture of it. We did private messages and cards in the past few years. I know she will be so missed. But she is now at rest , at peace and present with the Lord. My love and prayers for all her dear family and her dear devoted husband Gene. Friend and sister in the body of Christ Deanna Dixon

“ Jerry was a big part of my life growing up. She gave me my first job babysitting her three children while she went to church. Later she was my wedding planner doing all my bridesmaid dresses, cake, wedding decorations. She was so special and she did that for so many. I know she is with her father in heaven now. She will be missed.
