“ Came to Know Jess when I was in my teenage years. He was always such a sweet guy. Through the years, he would always smile and stop to say hello, and ask how I have been. It was an honor and privilege to get to sit in church with him over the past few years. He loved his family and would always request prayer for them. He will be greatly missed. RIP sweet angel.

“ I'm just lost for words. I'm deeply saddened and broken hearted. I tried to look out for Jess like many others. It's sad that he had to leave this world so early. I know he's in a better place, but he has a mother that has to bury her son. Praying for comfort for friends and family in the days ahead. He'll be missed by many. ❤️🙏

“ I'm a first cousin to Jess and I Love and miss him. We have good memories laughing and talking. I always helped Jess in anyway I could all of my life unless something happened that prevented me from doing so. I am heartbroken, saddened, and still hard to believe he's actually gone. I will always love and miss Jess forever. I know he's in Heaven.

“ Jess was a nice man. I wish I could have sat on the porch with him and talked much more, like I did with his dad. Rest in Peace Jess.

“ Always asking what I had to trade on. Last time I talked to him he was looking for an old style bumper jack. Fine fella.
