“ I'm so sorry for your loss...I considered Joe a very dear friend that always had my back either with kind words of encouragement or at times some "tough love" if that's what the situation called for. All of us were better ppl and had a better life just because Joseph was part of it. He will be missed tremendously but we will keep his memory alive through all the wonderful times that we all shared with him. Joe...til we meet again my dear friend...I love you!!!
