“ I haven't seen Josh face to face in a lot of year's but he and I did stay in touch. We shared lots of laughs and even more verses of Scripture. Josh had a true, honest Love for our Lord and Savior for many year's. His greatest desire was to share God's Word with everyone and to lead the lost to His saving grace. I'm certain the Lord has said, "well done My good and faithful servant" as Josh now walks across those golden streets of Glory. Rest on high brother in Christ Jesus. This cousin is going to miss you. Till we meet again.
