

Julia Starr

December 23, 1967 - October 9, 2025

Julia Starr, 57, of Niota, Tennessee, formerly of Belo, West Virginia, passed away peacefully at her home on October 9, 2025. Born on December 23, 1967, she was the beloved daughter of Loretta Starr of Belo and the late Ike Starr. She was preceded in death by her father and her cherished sister, Helen Turner, who welcomed her into Heaven.

Julia's life was a radiant tapestry of joy, laughter, and boundless love. Raised in Delbarton, WV, she carried her vibrant spirit to Tennessee, where she built a life full of adventure and deep family connections. Whether dancing to her favorite tunes, embarking on spontaneous beach getaways, or simply enjoying the company of loved ones, Julia embraced every moment with passion and grace.

She was a devoted mother to Greg Gillman, Daisy Stroud, and Kevin Gillman, and a proud grandmother to nine grandchildren who were the light of her life: Payton, Skylar, Winter, Sadye, Rowan, Addie, Brayden, Lucas, and Scarlet. Julia's love for her family was unwavering and ever-growing.

In addition to her children and grandchildren, Julia is survived by her mother, Loretta Starr; her sister, Juanita Starr; and her brothers, Ike, Lloyd, and Marion Starr. Her family was her heart, and she found her greatest joy in the simple, meaningful moments shared around the dinner table or in late-night conversations filled with laughter and love.

Julia's legacy lives on in every dance step, every ocean breeze, and every act of kindness inspired by her unforgettable presence. She will be deeply missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Funeral services will be held at the Belo Community Church of God on Wednesday, October 15, 2025, at 12:00 p.m., with Rev. Bill Hinkle and Rev. Roger Ooten officiating. Burial will follow at the Belo Cemetery. Visitation will take place at the church on Tuesday evening beginning at 5:00 p.m., with a service at 7:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Chafin Funeral Home to assist with funeral expenses. Chafin Funeral Home of Delbarton is honored to serve the Starr family.
