

Julius Davis

July 1, 1934 - August 23, 2018

With loving thoughts and memories, we will reflect on the life of a remarkable person, Julius Davis. The son of the late Julius and Virgie Davis, he was born on July 1, 1934 in Red Jacket, West Virginia. He left his life on Earth on August 23, 2019 in Lexington, Kentucky. Junior was baptized by WH Compton at the Delbarton Church of God. He was extremely thankful for the blessings that he had received in life and always gave the glory to God.

As a teenager, he met the love of his life, the late Mabel Meyers Davis at the Magnolia Fair. Upon returning from his service in the Army, they were united in marriage on September 15th, 1956, with the reverend Jeff Chafin officiating. Over 57 incredible years, they had four children, one preceding them in death, Robert Michael Davis. During their lives together, they were inseparable. The love, unity, and compassion in their marriage set a shining example for all of their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren to see. Surviving children include Phillip Davis, Debbie (Robbie) Adams, and Jeremy (Jennifer) Davis, all of Delbarton. He was blessed with three grandchildren: Josh (Emily) Adams, Debrinna (Jordan) Gibson, and Alyssa Davis. In addition, he has two great grandchildren, Grayden Gibson and Ezra Adams. Julius was preceded in death by three siblings, Joyce Brackett, Ida May Justice, and Donald Davis. He is survived by one brother, Bill John Davis.

Junior enjoyed life. He loved hearing his son Phillip sing. He loved his visits to his daughter Debbie's house, and always made sure to be home for his 10 o'clock phone call. He loved going to watch his son Jeremy coach basketball games as the Lady Bulldogs quickly became his extended family. He treated his son in law and daughter in law as his own, because in his eyes, they were. He had a tremendous love for his grandchildren and was proud of all of their accomplishments.

Julius was a one of a kind person. He was someone whose laughter would light up a room. His stories about working in the mines or everyday life would keep anyone near entertained for hours. He was an animal lover, dogs especially his favorite. He was a living example of hard work. He took great pride in his family and was a proud member of the community of Delbarton. He cared about everyone, and in turn they truly cared about him. He will be missed.

Per his request, Junior was cremated. There will be a memorial service Sunday, August 26, at 2pm. It will take place at Regional Church of God, with Rev. Will Compton presiding over a brief service. His remains will be placed alongside Mabel at Mike's Mountain Cemetery in Delbarton, West Virginia. Online condolences can be made at ChafinFuneralHome.Com “ Uncle Junior was definitely a one of a kind man. I have very fond memories of visiting as a child, him making homemade icecream, and having contests of who could spit watermelon seeds the farthest! He also helped my son Brian to wear his 1st pair of glasses by putting a fake beard and a hat on my son so they would look alike! He will be missed by many, and prayers go out to my cousins, Phil, Deb, and Jeremy! Rest in peace Uncle Junior!
