

Kathryn Ann Dillon

June 30, 1937 - December 22, 2025

Kathryn Ann Dillon, a lifelong resident of Pie, West Virginia, went to her heavenly home on Monday, December 22, 2025, following a short illness and stay at Appalachian Regional Hospital in South Williamson, Kentucky.

She was born on June 30, 1937, to the late Clarence “Howard” and Dixie Chamber Ferrell. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Rev. Fred Dillon, a well-known evangelist and pastor in Logan and Mingo Counties. Together, Fred and Kathryn faithfully served the Lord at Logan Baptist Church, Williamson First Baptist Church, Matewan First Baptist Church, and Connolly Memorial Baptist Church.

Kathryn Ann is survived by her only sister, Clare Nester, and her late husband Michael, of Jefferson City, Tennessee; a special niece, Shawana Ann of Williamson; and a great-nephew, Gavin Williamson of Burnsville. She is also survived by many cherished friends, including Loucille Matney; Sabrina and Dickie Belcher; Dian Hannah and her daughters, Stephanie and Evette; John and Debbie Godby; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hatfield; Barb and Helen Staten; Linda Stephens; and Carol Grimitt.

Kathryn was a longtime member of Connolly Memorial Baptist Church, where she joyfully participated in the choir. She was also a member of the American Baptist Association and the Widows Mite Group. Additionally, she served for many years with the Ladies Democrats of Mingo County.

Funeral services will be held at Connolly Memorial Baptist Church in Delbarton, West Virginia, on Monday, December 29, 2025, at 10:00 a.m., with

Rev. Zeke Stepp and Rev. John Godby officiating. She will be laid to rest beside her husband at Forest Lawn Cemetery in Pecks Mill, West Virginia. Visitation will be held at the church on Monday from 9:00 a.m. until the time of service.

Pallbearers will be Brayden Belcher, Ryder Slone, Caleb Baisden, Jimmy Chambers, Sam Woods, Sid Ferrell, Dickie Belcher, and Jerry Belcher.

Chafin Funeral Home is proudly serving the Dillon family.
