“ I am very sorry for your loss . Losing a loved one in death is such a difficult thing to experience . Please be comforted by the promises in the Bible . Jesus tells us at John 5 : 28 , 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out . What a loving provision put in place by the God of all comfort so we can have the assured hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again one day . Meanwhile as I pray for that day to come I ask Jehovah God to bless your family and give each of you the strength to endure this most trying time .

“ I hope you were met at the gates with a great big, loud "Hot Dog! Welcome home" from your friends and family (and mine). I know there was ONE for sure. May those left behind, down here, smile each time they feel you near and think of you. Peace and comfort for your family during this transition, may they take comfort in knowing you are with those who can provide the peace and love we can not yet understand.
