

Lillian Hatfield

October 4, 1970 - February 17, 2025

Lillian Hatfield, 54, of Newtown, West Virginia, peacefully passed away on Monday, February 17, 2025 while at home, surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on October 4, 1970, to the late William Floyd Dodgins and Opal Virginia Dodgins in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers, Charles Troy Bice and Christopher James Dodgins, and her sisters, Katrina Kay Mayhew and Elizabeth Rose Hammond.

Lillian was a loving wife, mother, and sister. She had a heart of gold and was known for her loving spirit. She dedicated her life to her little family, working as a homemaker, caring for her son, husband, and household, all with great pride. She held a strong love for The Lord and loved attending church when she was able; even after she was unable to attend, she proudly played her contemporary gospel music in worship. Those who knew her described her as “an angel to this world”. She will be dearly missed.

Those left behind include her loving husband of 26 years, Earl Hatfield Jr., her beloved son, Christopher William Dodgins, her sisters, Cynthia Bice and Lisa Ann (Paul) Dearfield, her nieces, Kimberly (Wayne) Bowens, Deanna Rose Davis, and Kayla Madden, and her great-niece, Brooke Hurley. Several other loving family members and friends are left behind as well.

In honoring the wishes of Lillian, direct cremation will take place and no services are to be announced. Her ashes are to be buried with her mother at her family cemetery. Chafin Funeral Home is proudly serving the family.
