

Linda (Hall) Baisden

March 25, 1951 - March 10, 2025

Linda (Hall) Baisden, 73, of Delbarton, West Virginia, passed away peacefully at her home on Monday, March 10, 2025. Born on March 25, 1951, Linda lived a life full of love, laughter, and just the right amount of sass to keep things interesting.

She was the daughter of the late Edna Thompson Hall of Hell Creek and was welcomed into heaven by her beloved husband and love of her life, Jerry Baisden, as well as her brothers, Paul David Hall (Sharon) and Dan Hall.

She is survived by her son Shawn Marcum (Brittany), two grandchildren: Finley Marcum and Cooper Marcum, her sister Rosemary Wilson (Frank) along with a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews and a sister-in-law, Geneva Hall.

Linda's greatest joy in life was her family. She adored her son, Shawn Marcum (Brittany), and if you ever had a conversation with her, you knew just how proud she was of him. Her two grandchildren, Finley and Cooper, were the absolute lights of her life, and she spoiled them every chance she got.

She was also blessed with friendships that were as strong as family. Her dear friends Malissa Diamond, Kim Sartin, Anthony Davis, KeAnna Davis, Stevie Adams, Carolyn Davis, Angel Contos and Dusty Contos brought so much joy and love into her life. Linda had a special bond with her cousin, Penny Marcum (Gary), who was like a sister to her, and she held Penny's daughter, Sherri Brown, close to her heart as well.

Linda had a way of making people feel special, and if you were lucky enough to be part of her world, you knew you had someone who would love you fiercely, support you endlessly, and keep you laughing through it all. She had a heart bigger than West Virginia and a personality that could light up a room.

She will be deeply missed, but her memory will live on in the love, laughter, and countless cherished moments she shared with those around her.

A visitation for family and friends will be held on Wednesday, March 12, at Chafin Funeral Home in Delbarton, WV from 6:00pm till 8:00pm with services at 7:00pm. Rev. Brian Wellman will be officiating.
