I remember your favorite color was Purple and this periwinkle candle made me think of that. I will have many things to remind me of you in the coming days and years and you will always be in my heart. I love you Sisterfriend. You could made a difference in peoples lives just with a smile or a nice thing you would say and you were loved more than you knew I think. I hope you are at peace and the angels hold you while you rest and we all wait to be together again in Heaven. What a beautiful day that will be to hear your laugh and see your smile again. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and all the ones you cared for that you called friend.
