“ So sorry to hear of Lorn's passing away. I still remember the days of our youth when all us Belo boys would get together and ride our bikes, ponies, horses, and just stay in the hills all day long. He was a good friend to anyone who knew him. He will be missed by all those who knew him. My prayers will be going up for his family and friends during this time of mourning. God bless you all. RIP Bluegene.

“ My heart is broken, knowing that the first man I called Dad has been called home to be with the Lord. He embraced me as his daughter from the first moment when I was just a toddler. Many summers, Lorn and me would spend the time in West Virginia with the rest of the Hall family, and I have fond memories of those times. He was a loving, dedicated father, and he will be dearly missed by all who knew him.
