“ I am so sorry for the loss of Sister Lucille. I am thankful I met such a wonderful GOD serving lady. Her main goal was to serve GOD and do whatever it took to glorify his name. She often done it by testimony or by song. I will truly miss her sweet smile but I can rest assured knowing we have the chance to meet her again in Heaven. We have truly lost a special sister in the church. My prayers go out to all her family, children and Brother Cletis. Love Sister Sue Workman Cassell
