“ I have so many memories of this special lady. We became friends when she and Derl came to pastor at Keensburg FWB Church and remained so even after she moved to NC. I remember the shopping trips, the restaurants we visited and the Spring Retreats we went to in Pigeon Forge. I remember how boldly she shared the Gospel with whomever she came in contact with. Rest in peace my friend. I'll see you later.

“ Mabel and I grew up together on Trace Creek. We were cousins and lived just 2 houses away from each other. She, Nettie and I played together every day with much joy and laughter. We have stayed in touch other the years by phone, Facebook and a few visits. I loved her and the whole family so much and I will sorely miss her till we meet again.
