“ Mark came to the library in Delbarton quiet often with Pat Kennedy and Mary Davis. He always wanted to hear Achy Breaky Heart and he would sing as loud as he could and just dance away. Mark was a special person to me. I just asked Pat on Thursday how Mark was doing. He is going to be missed. Praying for his family.

He was one special young man in so many ways. I quote him sometimes. I remember when Delbarton had their homecoming going on, Bob wanted to go home and Mark asked him, "why do you want to go home and look at the four walls when you can have fun?" That made all kinds of sense to me and I have always remembered he said it first. We all just loved Mark.
