“ This has been the hardest year. Myrtle was so sick. She suffered for 2 years. She accepted Jesus in her heart and ask forgiveness of her sins and then ask God to take her home. I prayed and ask God just to let her go to sleep & take her home and God did it around 12 on the 19. Everyone knew how close we were but yet different from daylight to dark. I know she is suffering anymore. She is at peace. If she could talk to her friends I believe she would say I wished I would have prayed soon. Thank all of you that has donated but most of all prayed. I sure will miss her.

I loved Sissy so much, she could always make me laugh. I will cherish the beautiful jewelry box, she gave to me on our very last visit together. We just never know what tomorrow holds, so be sure to hold your loved ones tight, and always be kind, just like Sis was to me.
