“ We are so sorry to hear this about Myrtle. I went to school with her. She was such a sweet lady. To the family thank you for being there for others during their time of need. Thank you for being there for us when our mother (Mable Robinson) was in skilled nursing. Your visits, prayers, and singing was very comforting to her and it witnessed to others the love of God in your lives. May God bless an comfort you is our prayer. Neal and Glenna Robinson
