“ I took care of Nellie many days while she stayed in Holden Hospital. I never saw her without a smile. She suffered a long while on this earth, but now she has traded her tired body for a brand new one. Although I had not seen in a few years, whenever I passed her home I always thought of her and whispered a prayer. She loved her children and her husband tremendously and is now reunited with Noah. Happy Home Coming to Nellie. Love and prayers for her family.

DO

Sister Nellie was one of the finest ladies I have ever known. She is home with God and all her family now, and in that I find great satisfaction and contentment. I hope it will bring Peace, Joy, and Gladness to the hearts of her wonderful family when they have stopped to internalize just how blessed they were to have her this long. Our Mothers are our best friends, and they were especially blessed to have her and Brother Noah. I loved them so very much. I never went to their home that they did not feed me something. But that was a sign of how loving and caring they were to all who entered their door. I am so troubled that I can't be there with the family through the services, Please know we are praying. Hugs and Love to you all.
