“ How do you write about someone who was like a brother to you? Uncle Otis was a very special man. He was one of three identical triplet uncles that I love so much. It seems odd to have two of them now, and not three. As the oldest grandchild of the Pinson family, my heart aches for my family members, especially Ronnie Dean and all his siblings. I thank Aunt Margaret for taking such good care of Uncle Otis till his last day here on earth. I have wonderful memories of Uncle Otis, and I will carry and cherish them always till we meet again in heaven. I love and miss you Uncle Otis. I know you are no longer hurting, and are singing in the Angel band! God bless everyone that he leaves behind.

“ I remember the day your mom and dad moved in with my family after the devastating 77 flood. They were a joy to have in the home. All of the kids that were born at that time we're a joy to have as well. It was like having brothers and sisters added to the family we all flowed well. We were together for a year and the entire time was a joy. They will be missed by many. Everyone that came in contact with them knew them to be kind and a joy to be around. Love and prayers to the family
