“ I look at this picture of Patsy, what I see is the face of a pretty little teenage girl. Patsy was my highschool classmate many years ago. The beautiful red hair, her bright smile is how I will always remember her. Praying that the Lord bless her family and friends giving them his peace and love. Rest In Peace Patsy Linda Gaines Givens

“ I'm so sorry for your great loss. Here is my memory:

On the first day of school when my friends and I were looking on the list to see whose room we would be placed in. Well, when my "friends" saw that my name was with "red-headed Mrs. Farley" they all began saying "you have to get out of her room", "she is mean and tough", etc.

At first I was a scared, little girl. But then, she spoke. Her compassion for her job and for each students life she touched was important to her. Yea, she was "tough", but she was also so sweet, compassionate, loving, etc.

I cannot speak for my entire class; however, for myself she was one of the "BEST". I could not wait for recess to tell all my friends. I returned back the 2nd day of school completely happy and excited. She treated each student differently, because each of us was different and needed her in so many different ways.

My heart and prayers go out to each of you. May Our Heavenly Father, wrap his arms around you all. Know she will be missed. Know that she was loved.

“ I've lived up the holler from this beautiful lady all of my childhood and would go to her home daily to hang out with her son and husband. Best people you could ever hope to meet. I'm so sorry for your loss Jess and Shawn, I came in as soon as I heard. Heaven gained a true angel for sure. Mrs. Patsy ALWAYS had a kind word and a smile the size of Texas anytime you saw her. She will be missed
