

Roberta "Robyn" Lynn Hatfield

January 26, 1965 - October 21, 2024

With great sadness, we announce the passing of Roberta "Robyn" Lynn Hatfield, 59, of Delbarton, West Virginia, who passed away on Monday, October 21, 2024 while at home. She was born on January 26, 1965 to the late Robert Lee Hatfield and Rosa Lee Trent Hatfield in Williamson, West Virginia.

Robyn leaves behind her two children, Keith Hall and Dessirae Hall, her grandson, Deven Hall, who meant the world to her, her sweet little granddaughter, Katherine Hall, and her siblings, Teresa Parham. Juan Hatfield, Cary Lee Hatfield, Lisa Kay Hatfield, and lifelong friend Kathy Muncy Diamond.

She enjoyed spending her free time outdoors, riding four wheelers. One thing that family members recall about Robyn, is that she learned to ride a bicycle at just 3 years old. She loved to drive, especially sports cars, and was well known for her talent of baking. Her pies were some of the best around. Robyn had a heart of gold, a clever sense of humor, and could turn any event into an entertaining story. She loved her family and friends and will be dearly missed.

Visitation for Robyn will take place on Tuesday, October 29, 2024 at Chafin Funeral Home in Delbarton, West Virginia from 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm. Cremation will take place afterwards

“ We live in Florida these days so news bout back home is slow getting to us. I am so brokenhearted to hear we've lost Robyn. Her and I could go either a day or two years without seeing one another but when we did we always picked right up where we left off. There was nothing fake about her. She was a great friend to me and my husband and she was always there for me whether I needed a ride, a place to stay or just her shoulder to cry on. We've been gone for 20 years now but she and I have kept in touch through the magic of social media. I'll miss you my beautiful friend. □'s are broken.
