Brother Ronald and I were good friends through growing up and he would come to church with me and then we lost touch for a while but GOD found us back in each other's lives again we would still go to church together he would come pick me up and he loved the Lord and he would always tell me

You know sister Shirley I'll be singing like that one day cause he wanted to get up and sing but I never got to see him go But now I can hear him singing with the angels now and shouting and being happy not sick anymore he has just began a new journey of life in complete peace n joy and healing

REST IN PEACE

BROTHER RONALD
